

Auscultation in Mitral Valve Prolapse

Typical late Systolic murmur (SM) of mitral valve prolapse with midsystolic click (C).

When the patient is sitting and leaning forward, the initiation of the systolic murmur and the click occurs earlier in systole.

When patient is standing, initiation of the systolic murmur and click is earlier in systole than when the patient is sitting.

When squatting, the onset of the systolic murmur and click is delayed

S. Moon, M.S.